Celebrate Tricks, Treats and Tails at Humane Society

Vero Beach, FL – The Humane Society of Vero Beach and Indian River County (HSVB & IRC) will be hosting its first “Tricks, Treats & Tails Howl-O-Ween” on Saturday, October 31st from 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

“This is a family friendly – and canine friendly event,” says Humane Society Director of Customer and Volunteer Services Phaedra Kohler. According to Kohler, the day will feature activities for the kids including tractor-pulled hayrides, a bounce house and dunk tank, face painting, “Tots ‘n Tails” photos and treasure hunts while family dogs will have the chance to win prizes for the “Best Critter Costume,” “Best Howler,” and “Best Pooch and Pal Costume,” as well as play games such as Bobbing for Bones. Curious canines can even have their paws read by a mystical fortune teller to determine if treats are in their future.

The shelter’s Tricks, Treats and Tails Howl-O-Ween event will be held at the Humane Society, located at 6230 77th St., Vero Beach. The event is open to the public and free of charge, however the shelter is asking guests to bring a donation of canned or dried pet food to supplement the Humane Society Pet Food Bank. The food bank provides pet food to families struggling to feed their animals.
